

BELOVED FRIEND –

I have heard your shouts and sighs, your prayers they have ascended as incense before me, your uplifted hands as the evening sacrifice.

Do you love me?..... I asked Peter this very same question.

Know this, that I love you with an EVERLASTING LOVE.

I unconditionally (agape) love you despite your denials of me.

I agape love you when you're unresponsive towards me, when you feel UNWORTHY and don't love yourself.

I agape love you through the shame, the violence of life's storms. Understand that my love is the purest of love, not based on merit but rather UNCONDITIONAL, and I AM the image bearer of that love... ME... JESUS THE CHRIST.

It was I who went out for the salvation of you... YES YOU beloved. I know the very hairs on your head. I have chosen you for GREATNESS.

Beloved, my delight is you. Today if you will say yes to my love, I will take you and make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you to live this agape love, loving my Father, Our Father and your neighbour as yourself. Reflecting the very heart of who I AM.

Do you love me?....
I AGAPE LOVE YOU.

– YOURS, JESUS
